

GUIDANCE FOR GRIEVANCE MECHANISMS

- The grievance mechanism can be a dedicated phone number, email address, or note box.
- The mechanism should be supervised by a designated person of trust involving appropriate level of management.
- The grievance procedure should be transparent on process and duration for investigation and resolution.
- Employees should be informed about the existence of the grievance mechanism